2010-12-26	10:15 AM	1:15 PM	Small-Group Milan Walking Tour with Da Vinci's Last Supper [Viator]	Tour Starts in the center of Piazza del Duomo, next to statue of a man on a horse	Get to know the stylish city of Milan on foot, starting with a visit inside the famous Duomo in the heart of the city. This impressive and beautiful cathedral is often described as one of the most beautiful churches in the world! Your next stop is the impressive Galleria Vittorio Manuele II – a 19th-century glass-vaulted shopping arcade. Brimming with fashionable shops and cafes, you can admire the spectacular shop windows as you pass through the gallery to reach Piazza della Scala. This famous square houses the world's renowned Scala Theater – Milan's Opera House since 1778 and still in use today. Some of the greatest musicians and singers the world has ever known have performed here! Next, take a stroll through the Brera District, rich in historical buildings, restaurants and fashionable bars – this area has long been home to artists and intellectuals. Its picturesque and winding streets lead you north to Castello Sforzesco, where you will take a short stop to admire the imposing medieval castle and fortress. The final stop and highlight of this walking tour is Leonardo Da Vinci's 'Last Supper', hidden away at the Church of Santa Maria delle Grazie. This enormous and complex 15th-century mural captures the emotional moment in which Jesus announces that one of his 12 disciples will betray him. The painting had been severely damaged over the centuries, and has only very recently undergone a painstaking 21-year restoration, revealing the original colours and details of this masterpiece. The delicate nature of this mural and its importance means entrance is strictly limited to those who have pre-booked – only one group is allowed to stand with the painting at a time, in a specially conditioned room, for 15 minutes only. This Skip the Line Tour of Milan includes pre-booked entrance, guaranteeing exclusive no line entry and an intimate viewing of this special painting.	Jerome's Calendar

2013-04-30	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Lunch [Café Mozart]	Albertinaplatz 2, 1010 Wien	Fodors Review: When he stayed at the adjacent Hotel Sacher, Graham Greene loved having his coffee here while working on the script for The Third Man. (Greene included the café in the film, and Anton Karas wrote a waltz for the place.) The café, named after the monument to Mozart (now in the Burggarten) that once stood outside, is overrun with sightseers, but the waiters are charming and manage to remain calm even when customers run them ragged. Crystal chandeliers, a brass-and-oak interior, comfortable seating, and delicious food—the excellent Tafelspitz here has to be mentioned—add to its popularity. With the Opera just behind the café, this is a fine place for an after-performance snack; be on the lookout for opera divas here for the same reason.	Travel: Eat

2013-05-01	6:00 AM	7:30 AM	Tour [Kaiserliche Schatzkammer Wien]	Michaelerplatz 1, 1010 Vienna, Austria	The Secular Treasury offers a unique panorama covering over a millennium of European history. This is the home of the most important collection of medieval royal objects: the insignia and jewels of the Holy Roman Empire, including the Imperial Crown and the Holy Lance. Further highlights include the Crown of Emperor Rudolf II. (which later on became Crown of the Austrian Empire), as well as the vestments and other precious items of the Order of the Golden Fleece. Exceedingly valuable gems, including one of the world's largest emeralds, bear witness to the Habsburgs' former degree of power. In earlier centuries, two items were considered to be so unique that they were declared "inalienable heirlooms of the House of Austria": a giant narwhal tooth which was thought to be the horn of a unicorn and an agate bowl from Late Antiquity which was thought to be the legendary Holy Grail. http://www.kaiserliche-schatzkammer.at/en/	Travel:See
2013-05-01	8:00 AM	9:05 AM	Pollicino [Wiener Staatsoper]	Opernring 2, 1010 Wien	Many listeners and classical music fans know Hans Werner Henze for his brooding, satiric, serious, biting, even ravishing vocal music but nothing in his list of works is quite like Pollicino, a children's opera based on the story of Tom Thumb. All the parts both vocal and instrumental (except the four adults in the story) are written for children to perform and though challenging, are playable by (mostly but not entirely) advanced students. This freed Henze to create music that is direct in its appeal, tonality-based, varied, and filled with the dark and light aspects of fairy tales. The singing parts are substantial and often beautiful but the fear and uncertainty of childhood is not overlooked. It is Henze in a different vein, but a	Travel:See

On the site of the old imperial château de plaisance a splendid edifice was to arise. Half a century later under Maria Theresa Schönbrunn Palace was to become the magnificent focus of court life. From that time onwards it played host to the leading statesmen of Europe. Although Austria is now a republic, Schönbrunn has remained a place of political encounter at the highest level. The magnificent architecture and the exquisite décor of its state rooms marks Schönbrunn out as a cultural treasure and tourist attraction of the first order.	Travel:See

Extending for 1.2 km from east to west and approximately one kilometre from north to south, it was placed together with the palace on the UNESCO list of World Heritage Sites in 1996. The palace and its grounds form a unit and reflect each other, in accordance with the Baroque notion of the princely palace, according to which architecture and Nature should interpenetrate. The Baroque layout of the gardens, together with the additions made during the last decade of Maria Theresa's life, have survived more or less intact and today still determine the characteristic appearance of the	Travel:See

2013-05-01	4:00 PM	5:00 PM	Dinner [Hajszan-Neumann]	Grinzinger Straße 86, 1190, Wien	TripAdvisor Review: It was amazing to us to find that the city of Vienna has wine vineyards within city limits, and that many provide dining experiences as well as tastings. One of the easiest to get to (at the end of the 37 tram), with an amazing gourmet restaurant to show off its very good wines, is Die Winzeri, which is the name of the restaurant in the Hajszan-Neumann winery. We stopped by to sample some of their 7 red and white wines, and ended up staying for 3 hours to dine on incredible Bio-standard dishes such as cold watermelon-cucumber soup, delicious porcini mushroom broth with rabbit pockets, very fresh pasta with vegetables, and peach tart with vanilla cream dessert. We plan to go back tonight for a proper dinner! The dining room is beautiful and staff are fluent in English, courteous and incredibly proud of their wines and food (the only drawback is the winery does not have the splendid views of the city that some other heuriga have). This was our best meal in 8 days in Vienna.	Travel: Eat
2013-05-01	5:00 PM	6:00 PM	Wine Tavern Crawl [Grinzing Heurigen]	Cobenzlgasse 22, 1190 Wien	One of the best bangs for your buck are the Heurigers — or wine gardens — which are affordable sanctuaries about 20 minutes outside of the city. You'll need to plan ahead and choose the right train and bus to take you to and from the Heuriger suburb of your choice. We chose Grinzing, one of the more touristy towns. Imagine a pub crawl but replace the beer halls with picturesque outdoor patios and substitute hearty beer with light, local wine. For only a few euro each, you can try each taverns' wines and then move along to the next. Cheesy local musicians fill the air while the occasional drunk Asian tour bus filters through. A trip to a Heuriger is pure bliss. Make it a romantic evening for two or gather a group of friends for the most charming bar crawl around. If you get a little wined out after a few stops, try an Aperol Spritz, a popular orange Italian drink the locals sip in outdoor cafes throughout the city. After this experience, you'll wish you were	Travel: Eat

2013-05-02	7:00 AM	9:00 AM	Lipizzaners Morning Exercises [Spanish Riding School]	Michaelerplatz 1, 1010 Vienna, Austria	The Morning Exercise offers an insight into the years of training of the Lipizzaners and their riders. Accompanied by classical Viennese music the riders and their horses do simple relaxing exercises and exercises aimed at refining and perfecting a certain movement. Each rider is personally responsible for the training of the stallion entrusted into his care. Through the specific strengthening and building up of the muscles, the horses' natural movements are developed into the perfect figures of the "High School". As we do not want to put too much strain on the horses, the classical School jumps Levade, Courbette and Capriole, which are shown during the performances, are not practised on a daily basis. 2013-05-02	12:00 PM	2:30 PM	Vienna: Explore and Shop		One idea would be the Imperial Crypt, built for members of Austria's former Habsburg dynasty, who have been laid to rest in the crypt since 1633. 149 Habsburgs, including 12 emperors as well as 19 empresses and queens, have their final resting place here. The magnificent double sarcophagus of Maria Theresia and her husband, Emperor Franz I. Stephan von Lothringen, is a work by Balthasar Ferdinand Moll. In strong contrast to this is the plain sarcophagus of her son Joseph II. The last emperor to be buried here was Franz Joseph I. (1916). The sarcophaguses of Empress Elisabeth and Crown Prince Rudolf are situated in the crypt, which is looked after by Capuchin monks. The hearts of the Habsburgs were buried in the Heart Crypt of the Church of the Augustinian Friars from 1654 to 1878. Burials take place in the Imperial Crypt to this day: the last Austrian empress, Zita, was buried here in 1989. And on 16 July 2011, her eldest son, the former Crown Prince and European politician, Otto Habsburg, was laid to rest here alongside his wife, Regina. Imperial Burial Vault (Kaisergruft) Tegetthoffstraße 2 1010 Wien	Travel:Buy

2013-05-03	4:00 PM	5:30 PM	Dinner [Ratskeller München]	Marienplatz 8, 80331 München	Throughout Germany, you'll find Ratskellers, traditional cellar restaurants in Rathaus (city hall) basements, serving decent and inexpensive food and wine. The decor is typical: dark wood and carved chairs. The coziest tables are in the semiprivate dining nooks in the rear, under the vaulted painted ceilings. Bavarian music adds to the ambience. The menu, generally a showcase of regional fare, includes some international dishes, many of them vegetarian or lighter in content than the usual German fare served in town cellars. Hearty tasting regional fare includes Munich white sausages with sweet mustard or roast Bavarian duck with a mustard seed gravy. Another regional dish much in favor with diners is the roast pork shank with potato dumplings and red cabbage.	Travel:Eat

2013-05-04	3:00 PM	5:00 PM	Dinner [Hofbräuhaus München]	Platzl 9, 80331 München	The state-owned Hofbräuhaus is the world's most famous beer hall. Visitors with only 1 night in Munich usually come here. The present Hofbräuhaus was built in 1897, but the tradition of a beer house on this spot dates from 1589. In the 19th century, it attracted artists, students, and civil servants, and was called the Blue Hall because of its dim lights and smoky atmosphere. When it grew too small to contain all the patrons who wanted to visit, architects designed another, in 1897. Today, 4,000 beer drinkers can crowd in here on any given night. Several rooms, including a top-floor room for dancing, are spread over three floors. With its brass band (which starts playing at 11am), the ground-floor Schwemme is most typical of what you probably expected -- here it's eternal Oktoberfest. In the second-floor restaurant, strolling musicians entertain, and dirndl-clad servers offer mugs of beer between singalongs. Every night the Hofbräuhaus presents a typical Bavarian show in its Fest-Hall, starting at 7:45pm and lasting until midnight. (This was also the 1920 setting for the notorious meeting of Hitler's newly launched German Workers Party, when a brawl erupted between the Nazis and their Bavarian enemies.) The hall is open daily 9am to midnight.	Travel:Eat

2013-05-06	5:00 AM	8:00 AM	Murano Excursion [Museo Vetrario]	Fondamenta Marco Giustinian 1, 30141 Murano Veneto	On Murano, look for signs saying "fornace" – that indicates a workshop open to visitors. Most fornaci are hard at work in the morning and really quiet in the afternoon, so get to Murano as early as you can. Places that are producing really high end glass (say about 100 euro for a single glass) are Moretti and Venini. Both glass makers are represented in museums. Some of the larger glass showrooms on Murano have a small demonstration area where they have one "piazza" (glass blowing station run by a master glass blower) to do smaller, single objects like a vase, which are enjoyable, and the hard sell is limited, as you can just walk out. The Museo Vetrario (glass museum) in the huge Palazzo Giustinian houses a splendid collection of antique pieces. The prize exhibit of the collection is the Barovier wedding cup (1470–80), with enamel- work decoration by Angelo Barovier. There is also a section devoted to modern glass, with some splendid items on view. Tel 041 739 586.	Travel:See

2013-05-07	10:30 AM	11:30 AM	Visit [Pantheon]	Piazza della Rotonda, 00186 Roma	The Pantheon was commissioned by Marcus Agrippa during the reign of Augustus as a temple to all the gods of ancient Rome, and rebuilt by the emperor Hadrian about 126 AD. The building is circular with a portico of large granite Corinthian columns (eight in the first rank and two groups of four behind) under a pediment. A rectangular vestibule links the porch to the rotunda, which is under a coffered concrete dome, with a central opening (oculus) to the sky. Almost two thousand years after it was built, the Pantheon's dome is still the world's largest unreinforced concrete dome. The height to the oculus and the diameter of the interior circle are the same, 43.3 metres (142 ft). It is one of the best-preserved of all Roman buildings. It has been in continuous use throughout its history, and since the 7th century, the Pantheon has been used as a Roman Catholic church dedicated to "St. Mary and the Martyrs" but informally known as "Santa Maria della Rotonda." The square in front of the Pantheon is called Piazza della Rotonda. tel +39 347 8205204	Travel:See

2013-05-08	6:00 AM	9:00 AM	Capitoline Museums Tour [Context Travel]	Piazza del Campidoglio 1, Roma	You will meet your docent in Piazza del Campidoglio under the arcaded doorway numbered 2041. Piazza del Campidoglio has two arcades running down either side, the portion of the arcade you are looking for is in the north-east corner of the square. If you are coming up the main staircase into the square, looking directly at the equestrian statue which will be facing you, the arcade will be on your left. A small white plaque on the inside of the arcade lists the number 2041. In the company of an art historian, classicist, or archaeologist, this walk explores the rich and eclectic art collections of the Capitoline Museums, or Musei Capitolini, the oldest public museums in the world. The museums contain a compendium of art works and artifacts that fully trace the entire history of the city, from its very foundations to present day, covering Roman and Italian treasures ranging from antique bronzes and marble busts to Renaissance paintings and frescoes. The physical structure of the museums are a museum within themselves, most notably, within its setting in the Michelangelo-designed Piazza Campidoglio. Here, in Piazza del Campidoglio, we begin underneath the gaze of the reproduction of Marcus Aurelius' bronze equestrian statue. After a discussion of the history of the museum and its location on Capitoline Hill, we will examine the collection, which gives visitors the unique chance to observe thousands of years of Roman artistic, political and social history. From this vantage point, we are also afforded a breathtaking view of the Forum and Palatine Hill, which set up the context for what is housed within the museum. Our walk through the museum is not meant to view the entire collection, but rather to focus on the most significant pieces for understanding the art and architecture of antiquity. Treasures such as the newly restored equestrian statue of Marcus Aurelius, the foundations of the temple to Jupiter Capitolinus, the colossal statue of the Emperor Constantine, marble busts of noblemen and patricians, and bas-reliefs with scenes from Roman history allow us to view the	Travel:See

2013-05-08	12:00 PM	4:00 PM	Archeology Tour: Roma Antica, from the Roman Forum to the Colloseum [Context Travel]	Via delle Terme di Tito, 72, Roma	Meet your docent in front of the Oppio Caffè, which is located at via delle Terme Tito 72 (on the corner of via Nicola Salvi). The cafe is located just above the Colosseo Metro stop (line B) and is located directly next to another bar named Bar Biga. This four-hour walking seminar takes us into the archaeological core of the city, focusing on three key monuments: the Roman Forum, Palatine Hill, and the Colosseum. Led by an archaeologist or classical historian, this in-depth tour uses the ruins of Rome as a backdrop for discussing the rise of the Roman empire, the political intrigues of emperors, and the daily life of commoners. Since our docent is a trained scholar, we'll also use our time together to discuss the role of archaeology in history and learn how to read the ruins in order to reconstruct the ancient city. As much more than just a Colosseum tour, this seminar provides some of the basic tools to put ancient Rome into context. Depending on the individual docent's approach, we might start the walk at any of the three major areas: Palatine Hill, Forum and Colosseum. On the Palatine Hill, we will explore the first stages of the city and the legend of its founding in 753 B.C. (on April 21, to be exact) by Romulus. After covering the founding myths and anthropological record of the Palatine, we explore the imperial palaces that eventually covered the hill. If time and interest allows, we usually stop in the Palatine museum to learn about Roman statuary and, when possible, make a special visit to one of the archaeological sites normally closed to visitors. We will linger for a while among the ruins of the Palatine, as from here one gets a very good introduction to archaeological technique, Roman architecture and construction technologies, and Roman political and social structure. From here, we will explore the remnants of the aqueduct of Claudius and take in vistas of the Roman Forum that illustrate the palimpsest nature of the city. While in the Forum, we will focus on a series of discussions that will carry us down the Via Sacra (the main street of ancient Rome) and	Travel:See

The people at the bar in Paolo's know Context Rome. The Sistine Chapel, Raphael Rooms, and Pieta by Michelangelo are just some of the many art treasures we'll cover in this four-hour, in-depth Vatican tour. Led by a trained theologian or art historian, our critically acclaimed Arte Vaticana walk visits both the Vatican Museums and the Basilica of St. Peter's and is conducted more like a true walking seminar than a normal tour: By limiting our group size to no more than six people we're able to take a deeper approach to the Vatican collections as we explore Papal history and the role of art throughout the history of the Catholic Church. Armed with reserved entry tickets, which guarantee a quick entry into the museum, we begin with the Vatican art collection, one of the world's great repositories of art. Although each walk evolves differently depending on our docent's area of expertise and the interests of the group, we generally start with a thorough overview of Papal history and the construction of the Papal Palace (now home to the Museums). We will often veer off to the chronologically-arranged picture gallery known as the Pinacoteca, which forms the perfect backdrop for a seminar on the history of painting from the late medieval to high Renaissance periods. From here we will traverse the halls of the Vatican palaces, visiting the most important rooms of the museums including the ancient statuary collection of Julius II and the Papal apartments decorated by Raphael. By the time we reach the Sistine Chapel, we will have set the context to appreciate the cultural and artistic climate in which Michelangelo worked, painting the ceiling and later the Last Judgment. The final thirty to forty minutes of this walk cover St. Peter's Basilica, a vast church and the symbolic center of Catholicism. Standing 26.3 metres (86 ft) high and 49.15 metres (161.3 ft) wide, it is the largest Baroque fountain in the city and one of the most famous fountains in the world. A traditional legend holds that if visitors throw a coin into the fountain, they are ensured a return to Rome. This was the theme of 1954's Three Coins in the Fountain and the Academy Award-winning song by that name which introduced the picture. An estimated 3,000 euros are thrown into the fountain each day. The money has been used to subsidize a supermarket for Rome's needy; however, there are regular attempts to steal coins from the fountain.	Travel:See
